Deferment is postponement of the commencement of a course of study. It must occur prior to start of a new academic term or a study period. Deferment is usually of the course start date and granted for a completed term, allowing a student to commence or re-commence their studies in subsequent academic terms.

Suspension of studies is a temporary postponement of a course of study. It may occur at any time during an academic term or study period.

For more information, see MEGA's Deferment, Suspension and cancellation Policy at:
<http://www.mega.edu.au/policies-forms/>

Australian Qualification Framework (AQF)

The Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) is the national policy for regulated qualifications in Australian education and training. It incorporates the qualifications from each education and training sector into a single comprehensive national qualifications framework. More information on AQF can be found at: <http://www.aqf.edu.au/>

The AQF encompasses all the education sectors in Australia including higher education, vocational education and training and schools.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) & Credit Transfer

MEGA provides RPL and Credit Transfer opportunities to all students. Students may apply for RPL or Credit Transfer for an existing competency or prior learning in any of the units offered, see MEGA's RPL and Credit Transfer Policy and Procedure for more information at:
<http://www.mega.edu.au/policies-forms/>

Recognition of prior learning (RPL) involves the assessment of previously unrecognised skills and knowledge that an individual has achieved in work life, or in a formal or an informal education and training system. RPL assessment is fee-based. Credit transfer does not involve assessment and is granted on determination of equivalency between two units of competency. There is no fee for credit transfer.

Issuance of AQF Documentation

MEGA is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) approved to issue AQF certifications to eligible students. MEGA has no other partner, either in Australia or overseas, to deliver training and assessment on its behalf. MEGA is the sole authority to issue all AQF documentation under the relevant standards and regulations

ESOS Framework

The Australian Government wants overseas students in Australia to have a safe, enjoyable and rewarding place to study. Australia's laws promote quality education and consumer protection for overseas students. These laws are known as the ESOS Framework and they include the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act 2000 and the National Code 2018.

The ESOS Framework can be assessed at:

Assessment Methods

MEGA will use a range of assessment methods for this course to produce valid decisions and recognise that learners demonstrate competence in a variety of ways. Assessments for all our courses have been designed for classroom based face-to-face delivery and assessment. Assessment methods include practical tasks and demonstrations, direct observation, written tasks, knowledge tests/quizzes, written or oral questioning.

Mode of Delivery

All the students are enrolled in classroom based face-to-face delivery mode. Under the provisions of Standard 8 of The National Code 2018, MEGA has the option to deliver up to one-third of the units in an academic term in blended learning delivery. With a view to maintain academic focus and integrity, when planned, MEGA may allocate part of the units in the form of blended learning with trainer's support and supervision in an academic term. Blended component will be supported by workbooks.
